TESTIMONY: GOD'S 'SNIPER' RIDES
CAPE TRAINS TO BRING IN HARVEST

Niel Botma

WEDNESDAY 4 MARCH 2020 @ 19:00

LEWENDE WOORD / ARCADIA STR 4 / 022 492 3070

Niel Botma.. part of his testimony

he lost most of his eyesight under rocket attack by an aircraft flying overhead. His best friend bled to death in his arms during the incident.

At a meeting in the Western Cape in 2016 a prophetess told him the Lord wanted him to "go and bring in the harvest".

Botma doubted her word because he could hardly see, couldn't read and couldn't write. But soon afterwards he witnessed a disabled woman intercessor leading many people to the Lord. He decided that if she could do that, so could he.

He said the Holy Spirit told him he should not "shotgun" — in other words, he should not go out and "try and shoot everyone" — but he should rather be like a sniper, targeting the people the Lord highlighted.

Because he did not have much money for the ministry at first, he would usually buy bananas to give to people the Lord pointed out to him. This inspired his intercessors to name the ministry "Bananas For Jesus".

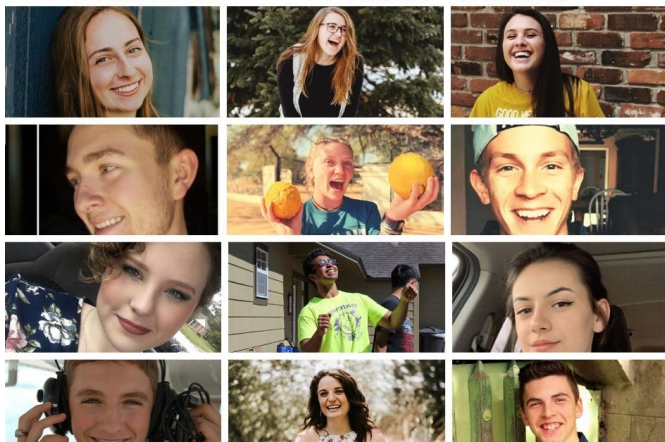

"Don't concentrate on what you don't have. Concentrate on what you do have."
